What is Going On Tonight

American Benefit Society Willimantic Lodge No. 114, meets at 7:30 Main street.Loyal Order of Moose meets at Moose Home, Pleasant street.School Board meets in Selectmen's office, Town Building.At the meeting of the Willimantic Welfare Bureau held Monday evening, Mrs.
Orr Manning Clark resigned her position as secretary. Mrs. Clark has held the office for the past two years. Her report on activities during September follows: Number of office calls 177, outside calls 113, telephone calls 52; letter 19, relief was given to twelve persons. The organization had received many gifts of clothing, shoes, etc., during the month. The report of the Treasurer was as follows: Receipts, memberships 1176; refund, $10.75; special 25 cent fee balance on hand $25.51, total $250.76. Expenses, rent, $5; rent $9; incidentals $4.46; office $5.30, to treasurer $175; total $201.76.It was great news to democrats of Willimantic Tuesday when it became known that their party's candidate for president of the United States, Governor Cox of Ohio, would speak in this city about 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, October the 28th. Willimantic after that date will have been favored by hearing three of the big men of the party make campaign speeches something that has not happened in this city for many a year.
Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Congressman Longman spoke at Lincoln Square, and later Congressman Longman was heard at the town building. When Governor Cox arrives in this city on the 29th he will be met at the station by former Mayor Daniel P. Dunn and other prominent democrats. Mr. Dunn is an ardent supporter of Governor Cox and has received a telegram from the latter thanking him for work in his behalf at the democratic national convention at San Francisco.Anticlimax who were held up by Motor Vehicle Inspectors Gorman and Carroll,

The Instant-Cooked Breakfast Cereal

A new flavor—a delightful change Try this delightful, mellow cereal. It's not cornflakes, but a new, creamy breakfast dish—warm and refreshing—which cooks thoroughly in an instant. Stir into boiling water and it's done!Just the choicest part of the finest white corn ground fine, steam-cooked and prepared for instant serving by a patented milling process that also gives a wonderful, new flavor.Delicious, nutritious economical, easy to prepare.

Try it. Ask your grocer.
He'll refund your money if you don't like Sunnycorn!THE PATENT CEREALS CO.
GENEVA, N. Y.question of getting out the women's vote was the main topic of the meeting.Over 500 new voters were made Tuesday by the examining board in session in the selectmen's room in the town building. Of this number 446 were women and the remaining number were men. Since the work of making voters was begun Saturday over 1,300 new voters have been made. The board is to meet once more this week on Friday, and if all those who registered are made, the board will make over 1,800 new voters that day.Delegates from the Willimantic locals to the 29th annual convention of the United Textile Workers of America, held in Manchester, N. H., last week, have returned to this city and express themselves as deeply indebted to the citizens of Manchester for the fine treatment they received while in that city, and for all favors done. The delegates reported that Manchester greeted them all delectat-ion with flags and bunting, buildings being decorated and streets lined with bunting.
The 29th annual convention began to arrive in Manchester on Saturday and Sunday of last week and remained until the close of the convention, which it was announced was the greatest in the history of the United Textile Workers of America, over 300 delegates being present.
While the convention was being held the mill owners of Manchester invited the delegates to go through some of the local plants. The Amoskeag mills were chosen and this plant, which employs 15,000 and is rated as one of the greatest in New England, was a treat for the delegates to see. While at the mills all production was offered for sale at factory prices and many delegates took advantage of the opportunity to buy the goods. The Manufacturers' association offered 75 automobiles to the delegates for use in sightseeing about the city. Special theatre entertainments were given. The treatment of the delegates by the populace and by the manufacturers was evidence of the unity and respect held towards the labor organization. All delegates upon leaving Manchester made the statement that it was their desire to see such happy relations in their cities between the employers and organized labor.The Willimantic delegates to the convention were Frank W. Kraus of Box

JEWETT CITY

Monday morning, First Selectman William Johnson notified State Protector William Palmer that a deer had been impaled on the iron pickets of the Jewett city cemetery fence. Mr. Palmer telephoned to Hartford to find out the proper procedure. In the meantime Benny Naliko, who lives near the cemetery had rounded up the deer to his home, probably not knowing that it must not be removed without permission as he had notified the selectman that the animal was there. Mr. Palmer, with Martin Bugbee, another state special protector, went to Anthony Street and secured the animal. They carried it to George Geer's home in Hopeville, where it will be dressed, and Mr. Palmer has the disposal of the meat. The deer weighed 170 pounds.
